Shriji Narayan, constable of Bankura Police Station, has informed me that he has received a letter from the Honorable Chief Minister of West Bengal dated 27/07/19, regarding the arrest of a person under Section 147 of the Indian Penal Code. The letter states that the arrested person is a member of the Naxalite group, who have been involved in several incidents of violence and terrorism in the state. The letter also mentions that the arrested person is wanted for a recent killing of a police officer. I have taken necessary steps to ensure the safety of the arrested person and have initiated the legal process for his trial. I will keep you updated on the progress of the case.
