REPORT OF SRI SHYAMAL KUMAR TALUKDAR, CHIEF CONTROLLER, BANKURA DISTRICT CORRECTIONAL HOME REGARDING CONSUMPTION OF NARCOTIC DRUG LIKE SUBSTANCE BY ONE UTP SUMAN SINGH @ MOTA RAJA DETAINED IN CELL NO 3 ON THE NIGHT OF 18/19-06-2020 BETWEEN 1.00 AM TO 2.20 AM.

Today, i.e., on 19.06.2020, I entered inside Bankura District Correctional Home at 6.00 a.m. for unlocking inmates. At about 6.20 am, when the unlock process is near completion, I along with Head warder in-charge Sri Dibash Sanki of Morning Shift of 19.06.2020 and warder in-charge of last night shift (3.00 am to 6.00 am) Soumen Hazra and on-duty warder of Cell block Sri Shibsankar Pramanick went in front of Cell no. 3. Head warder in-charge Dibash Sanki called Suman Singh @ Mota Raja by his name loudly but he did not respond. He and all other on-duty staff present there began to shout but he (Suman Singh @ Mota Raja) did not respond. I immediately rushed towards main gate and asked the gate warder Uttam Samanta to call the Warder-driver Sri Prasanta Karmakar for shifting the UTP Suman Singh @ Mota Raja to BSMC& Hospital for saving his life. The Medical Officer of this Correctional Home Dr. Abir Banerjee was also called over telephone but he informed that he was on morning-walk and thus could not reach Bankura DCH sos. I ran towards the official residence of the Superintendent and briefed him the incident who instantly arrived at the spot and drove the utp Suman Singh @ Mota Raja to BSMC& Hospital along with myself , warder Sri Prasanta Karmakar, Debdulal Mondal & Tapan Garai . After examining scrupulously, The attending Medical officer opined that it was a case of unknown poisoning but after after a few minutes regain consciousness. On being asked, Mota Raja admitted that he consumed 1 & ½ sleeping peel but it was instantly confirmed from the Medical officer of this Correctional Home Dr. Abir Banerjee that he did not prescribe any sleeping peels for the inmate under reference.

After returning from the hospital, we along with the Superintendent and other staff () went to Cell No. 3 and searched the personal belongings of UTP Suman Singh @ Mota Raja and two Mobile phones { (1) OPPO CPH 1923 MOBILE PHONE WITH IMEI NO. 864894044537190 & 864894044537182, COLOUR- RED & (2) Samsung mobile phone with IMEI no. 353699116252067 } , one white coloured Mobile Charger (Oppo made) , One black Coloured Charger(black Coloured, Samsung made), One white coloured ear phone (Oppo made) 06 packets of Ganja like substance, 01 earthen pipe, some plastic and silver coloured paper, one strip of Nitrosum 10 tablet containing 9 tablets and 3(three) burnt silver coloured papers, one small paper card containing mobile no. 7003502806 & 8972804355 were seized from the said place.

Then the situation became crystal clear it was a case of drug overdose. The CCTV operator was called and CCTV footage of whole night of Cell No. 3 was examined in the chamber of the superintendent. It is found that Warder Sri Debabrata Bhowmick supplied some unknown articles throughout his duty period(from 1.00 AM to 3.00 AM on 18-19/06/2020 night) at Cell block and ward No. 1 to 5. Warder Sri Debabrata Bhowmick continuously stood in front of cell no. 03 from 1.00 AM to 2.20 PM and guarded UTP Mota Raja@ Suman Singh to consume the unknown articles by fire time and again. After consumption of the unknown article time and again, supplied by Warder Debabrata Bhowmick, UTP Mota Raja@ Suman Singh fell unconscious or plunged into deep slumber and after that he regained his consciousness in Hospital.

Later, in the evening of 19.06.2020, Sri Debabrata Bhowmick, warder, is interrogated at the office chamber of the Superintendent under video camera by Sri-Shyamal Kumar Talukdar, Chief Controller, Bankura DCH in presence of the Superintendent, all other executive officers and all off duty guarding staff where after refusal for long time admitted that he himself supplied narcotic drugs and Mobile phone on 18/19-06-2020 out of fear that UTP Suman Singh @ Mota Raja might harm his family members and he purchased all the articles from his own expenses. No financial transaction was involved in it. On being asked, he informed me that the voucher of the mobile phone is kept in the mess barrack.
