He replied it was his business. On being asked he could not show any documents/papers in support of the possession of the said articles.

As such, I seized the following articles from his possession after preparing proper seizure list duly signed by the witness in between 23:15 hours and 23:45 hours. No public witness agreed to sign in the seizure list, so, I took signature of the accompanying police personnel in the seizure list and arrested him after obtaining all legal formalities regarding arrest rule and guide lines of N.H.R.C during the time of arrest as he violated the provisions of Bengal Excise Act, 1909 by storing and selling Liquor (Country Spirit) without license.
